

Ken P. Finn, M.D.

Dr. Finn graduated Medical School from the University of Texas Health Science Center-Houston ('90). He completed residency in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation from the University of Utah ('94), and is board certified in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation ('95) as well as Pain Medicine ('98), and Pain Management ('00). Practicing medicine in Colorado Springs since 1994, Finn serves on the American Board of Pain Medicine Exam Council ('01), Appeals Committee ('14), and Executive Board ('14). He is the President-Elect of the American Board of Pain Medicine ('20). Finn served on the Colorado Governors Task Force on Amendment 64, Consumer Safety and Social Issues Work Group ('12) and served 4 years on the Colorado Medical Marijuana Scientific Advisory Council ('14-'18). He was an Executive Board member of El Paso County Medical Society ('14-'18) and helped Colorado Medical Society and Colorado Pain Society develop their position statement on cannabis ('18) as well as the El Paso County Board of Health ('14) and Medical Society ('14) on their statements. Finn is a voluntary clinical instructor for the University of Colorado Medical School-Colorado Springs Branch ('17-'20) and sees pain patients at the Colorado Springs Rehabilitation in Colorado.